Analysis

The EGX 30 index is still hovering around its support and still not able to rise. Despite that the market still looks weak, we believe that we might see a short-term rebound; if the index succeeds to trade back above 10,600, we will probably watch a rise to the 11,100 area.

Thus, those who want to step in at the rebound can enter as the EGX 30 breaks above 10,600 with a stop below 10,300.

Equal Caps Index/ EGX 50

Analysis

Still unable to rebound from here as buyers are still not aggressive enough at these levels.

As we mentioned before, if the EGX 50 rebounds from here, it will look positive as a higher low will be intact. A break above 1,840 will be seen as the first sign of this rebound.

Resistance

KABO  Closed at 0.7 after breaking 0.68 with high volumes. Our first target lies at 0.76, followed by 0.9. Those who want to step in can place their stop below 0.65.

Support

No stocks broke their support yesterday

Testing

Support

EFIH  The stock is trading around its major support area and should rebound from current levels. Position holders should place their stop below 16.6. As for the upside potential. If EFIH breaks above 17.75, a new short-term entry signal will be triggered.

MNHD  The 2.17 level is a minor support for the stock. A break below it will trigger short-term stops and will lead the stock to 1.9-1.95. Thus, near-term traders can place their stop below 2.17.

ORWE  The 7.15 minor support is in jeopardy and can be violated. A break below this level will trigger short-term stops with a target at 6.8.

N.B. please note that the levels are too close as these trading opportunities only suit T+0 speculators

The prices that are accompanied by a green arrow in the above table show resistance levels. Thus, a break above these levels will pave the way to achieve one (or all) of the targets.

The area between buying area 1 and buying area 2 is a trading area.

Tips on reading the report

The first page includes an analysis of two major indices in the Egyptian Stock Market; the norm is that we will analyze both the EGX 30 and 70, but sometimes we will compare the EGX 30 to its 50 counterpart if there is important information in this comparison. We also use the Hermes Last Index interchangeably with the EGX 30. The .HRMSL index has an important edge; it uses last prices instead of VWAP. First thing our clients should do is to read the indices analysis carefully to have a clear understanding on our overall view.

The second page includes stocks that broke out beyond their resistance levels, and those that violated their support levels. It also includes stocks that are testing their support levels and those that are testing their resistance. This analysis is important and it is the core of our recommendations. It is important to note though that not all stocks that are testing their support levels are bullish, and not all that are testing their resistance levels are bearish. To make it easier for our clients, we have placed a bull face 🐂 if we consider the stock under study bullish, and a bear face 🐻 if we consider it bearish. We also added a big bullet 🍒 if we are neutral.

It is important to note that you might find a stock that we consider bullish in our analysis (in the breakouts/testing section) but it remains as a hold or partial sell in the table. The conflict here is that the table is more conservative. This will not be an issue with our clients, because our analysis will explain why we are being bullish/bearish on the stock.
